

MIKE THE MONARCH

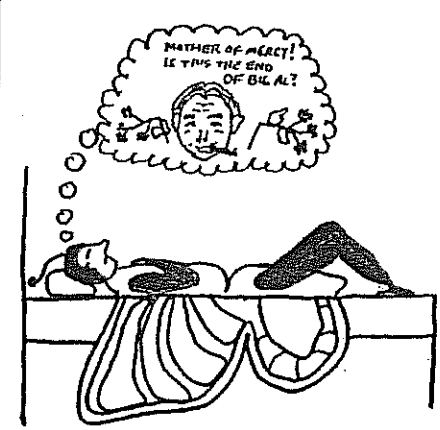

You don't know what you've got till it's gone...

If you eat milkweed pizza before bed, you'll have nightmares!

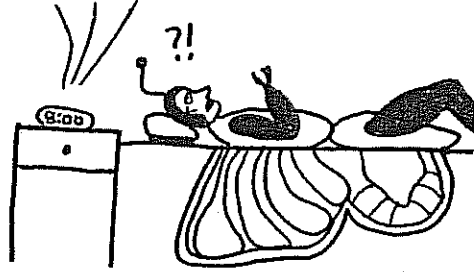

Mike is dreaming...

He awakens to the radio...

Today Illinois announced that buckthorn is the new state tree.

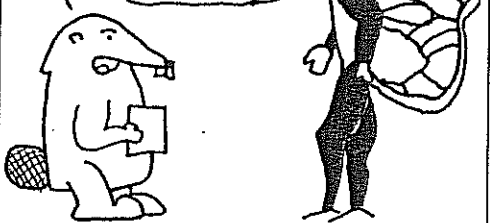

He reads the morning paper...

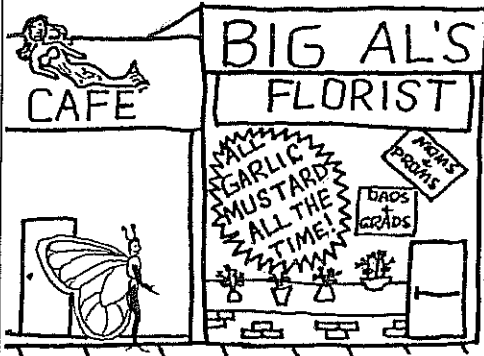

The mail arrives...

Mike, the new bird book has arrived.

It's only 20 pages long!

He takes a walk around the neighborhood...

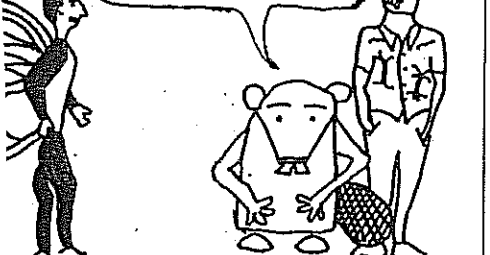

He goes downtown...

Help! I need a break!

You could go for a swim at Buckthorn!

We can watch the Cubs play the St. Louis Cowbirds!

No! No! Help me!

Mike! Wake up! You're having a nightmare!

What a dream! The Cubs and Sox were in the World Series!

People of Illinois, wake up! Volunteer NOW to save our natural habitat before it's gone!
